- [x] Is the tea likely to be healthy?

How goals are aligned

Sacred Blossom Farm is a Wisconsin herb farm that advertises restorative and low-intervention (or "low-input") farming practices to grow herbs, as well as a degree of foraging for some wild grown herbs. Their focus is on selling the finest tasting herbs with the healthiest plants they can produce, to provide the healthiest and most medicinally effective herbal blends that they can.
An example of the herbal blend that the Tea Tavern wholesales from them is Sacred Blossom Immunity.
